

ALLEGED SLAYER OF FOUR CAUGHT IN ROANOKE, VA.

Sam Moore Arrested on Suspicion of Killing
Negroes in Danville.

DANVILLE, Va., May 11.—Suspected of having poisoned and murdered his faithful wife, her lover, and a young negro couple, Sam Moore, a negro for whom the police have been on the look-out for several weeks, was arrested today in Roanoke.

The arrest of Moore makes another chapter in the tragedy enacted in the servants' room at the residence of the Rev. W. H. Atwill, a widely known Methodist divine, when three negroes were found dead and the fourth in a dying condition.

The discovery was made on the afternoon of April 23, and on the night prior they had been on a drunken carousal. An analysis of the whiskey found in the room and autopsy on the stomach of one of the bodies showed traces of cocaine poisoning.

The theory is that Moore in order to carry out his plan for revenge acted as host for the party and furnished the whiskey which was poisoned with cocaine. He left the city immediately after the tragedies. He will be brought back here tonight.

C. S. DONALDSON NAMED AS CONSULAR CHIEF

Secretary Straus, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, yesterday appointed C. S. Donaldson, of the Bureau of Manufactures, to be chief of the consular division, with a salary of $2,100, to succeed James C. Monaghan, who retired from the Government service more than two months ago. Mr. Donaldson became connected with the bureau through the civil service two years ago, after more than fifteen years in trade journalism, North and South, and was promoted as a result of efficient and faithful service. He is from western Pennsylvania.

Fete at "Friendship" With Myriad Features Friday and Saturday

The open-air fete at "Friendship," for the benefit of the charity wards of the George Washington Hospital, will be held on Friday and Saturday, postponed from last week. It bids fair to excel the fete of last year.

The exhibitions of horsemanship by the troopers of the Thirtieth Cavalry, and the men and women in steeplechases by no means exhaust the attractions. The Japanese wedding will be followed by a reception in its Japanese tea garden adjoining the ceremonial place. Japanese tea, American iced tea, and candy, also a delicious Japanese cherry ice will be dispensed by the bridal party.

The Casualty Hospital booth will be one of the most attractive. The chairmen with their splendid corps of assistants will be costumed as nurse, and its booth is near the gate. Mrs. D. O. Leech will serve sherbet.

Mrs. M. G. Copeland will sell fruit punch.

Mrs. J. C. Wineman will serve soft drinks on ice.

Mrs. W. C. Hibbs and a number of young women will sell roasted peanuts.

Miss Daisy Stewart and Miss Ethel B. Raymond will read palms and tell fortunes.

The Nordhoff Guild.

The Nordhoff Guild provides some attractive features for the spring fete at Friendship.

A marvelous Dutch tulip garden, presided over by Mrs. House, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Tweedale, Mrs. Dye, and Mrs. Whitaker.

A substantial Dutch supper, at most moderate price, served comfortably by pretty girls on costume, directed by Mrs. Barr.

The famous Nordhoff Guild candy, dispensed by Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. Cromwell, and Mrs. Moses, aided by a host of attractive girls. Mrs. Schooley will pour soft drinks for the thirsty, assisted by Mrs. Wilkie.

The moving picture tent will afford an excellent resting place for the weary, and entertainment pleasing and instructive.

Mrs. Charles M. Froulke and the junior committee of the Working Boys' Home and Children's Aid Association are arranging an entertainment, called "The Streets of Paris."

Tea will be served at tables in the shady arbor, with sandwiches and lemonade, or ice cream from the House of Hercy booth. Mrs. Ridgely and Miss Helen Froulke, with a most attractive corps of assistants, will be in charge.

Cafe Chantant.

The Cafe Chantant, where one may have afternoon tea served at small tables while listening to the excellent vaudeville performance, will be under the direct supervision of Mrs. Froulke and Mrs. Keir.

Mrs. Thomas Noyes, as a French flower girl, will sing some dainty French songs in her delightful way.

The vaudeville will present an excellent bill from 4 to 6, under the direction of Mrs. N. Monroe Hopkins and Miss Edith Miller.

Andrew Bradley, Mandeville Carlisle, Mr. Gower, and George O'Connor will sing to their own accompaniment on mandolins and guitars.

Miss Stephanie Trecoot will give a delightful exhibition of graceful fancy dancing.

Miss Beatrice Cosgrove, one of Miss Hawke's best known pupils, will give some of her delightful songs and dances.

Mrs. Piquette Mitchell will be seen in some charming Spanish dances with which she made such a hit in "We Are In Society."

The program will be concluded with a clever and amusing one-act play entitled "An Amateur Triumph." A large number of young married women, society girls, and debutantes are to assist in the cafe and at the booths, and several well-known men have promised to act as policemen, barkers, and sandwich men.

A portion of the Marine Band will furnish the music for the accompaniments.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF GOSPEL MISSION

A series of special meetings will commence this evening in the rooms of the Gospel Mission, 1230 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and last for a week. The meetings will celebrate the first anniversary of the establishment of the mission, marking an unusually successful year. The Rev. E. D. Bailey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., evangelist, will conduct the services and preach the sermon to-night.

The mission will this afternoon hold the first of its summer street meetings to be conducted from one of the big electric cars.

Members Go to Marshall
Hall, Play Ball and Eat
Planked Shad.

The Washington Bar Association held its annual outing at Marshall Hall yesterday. Notwithstanding the coolness of the weather many members of the legal profession enjoyed the occasion.

The members of the association were brimful of enthusiasm, casting dignity and formality to the winds in order to make the day one continuous round of pleasure.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the party left the foot of Seventh street aboard the Steamer Macalester, with flags flying, the band playing and everybody singing.

Arriving at the grounds a game of baseball was played between the older and younger members of the party, which was witnessed by every member of the association. Some of the players had not played a game for decades and others had never before undertaken such hard work. The efforts of the uninitiated to hit the ball, or run a base was more than amusing, making the game a regular circus of fun.

The usual planked shad and clam chowder dinner was served. W. F. Mattingly, president of the association, presided at the dinner which was informal and without speeches.

The specially invited guests were Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court; Justice Stafford, Justice Wright, Justice Barnard, Justice Anderson, and Justice Gould, of the District Supreme Court; Chief Justice Shepard, Justice Robb, and Justice McComas, of the District Court of Appeals; Chief Justice Peck, and Justice Barney, of the Court of Claims, and Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland.

It was after 8 o'clock last night before the party reached the city. They were tired, but as full of fun as when they left the city. The outing was a success in every particular and every one had a good time.

Cupid Aided Detective To Find "Wicked" Papa

NEW YORK, May 11.—Cupid played a mean trick on Martha Conrad, of Bloomfield, N. J., not to mention her papa, Charles, who will be tried in Newark May 28 on a charge of malicious mischief.

Conrad, it is alleged, painted the walls of a new house owned by Frederick Fisher, of Bloomfield, all the colors of the rainbow, out of spite, and went into hiding. A real mean detective, set upon his tracks, entered the Conrad home as a boarder, made violent love to Conrad's daughter, Martha, and giving her to understand that he owned much property in the West, hinted at marriage. He said, however, that it was customary in most cases to obtain the consent of both parents.

The girl, it is said, fell into the trap, gave him the address of her father in Philadelphia and also gave the detective his photograph.

The detective bade Martha good-bye after telling her he would return soon. That was the last she saw of him. He went to Philadelphia and found Conrad, who consented to return to New Jersey without a requisition. Martha is all cut up now.

"He was so nice," she said, with a sigh, "but I don't believe I will ever trust a man again."

CLEMENT HOWARD DEAD; BURIAL ON MONDAY

Funeral services for Clement W. Howard, whose death occurred yesterday morning in his home, 189 Wyoming avenue, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Trinity P. E. Church. The Rev. Richard P. Williams, rector of the church, will officiate, and the burial, which will be private, will be made in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Howard's death came as a shock to his business associates and friends in Washington, few of whom were aware that he was ill. A little more than a week ago Mr. Howard, while attending to his duties as secretary of the Firemen's Insurance Company, complained of feeling ill, and went to his home. He grew gradually worse until his death early yesterday morning. Mrs. Howard, who was formerly Miss Addie M. Lutz, of Leesburg, Va., and seven children survive him.

DEMANDS DAMAGES FROM TROLLEY COMPANY

In the District Supreme Court William T. Evans, a clerk in the Pension Office, by his attorneys, R. F. Downing and G. A. Berry has entered suit for $10,000 damages for alleged personal injuries against the Washington Railway and Electric Company and the City and Suburban Railway Company. Mr. Evans claimed that on April 10, while alighting from a car of the defendant company at the Baltimore and Ohio station, he was thrown to the ground and seriously injured by the car starting prematurely.

NEW OPERA HOUSE WILL BE WELCOME

Favorable Comments Heard
On Plan to Raise $200,000 for the Site

Favorable comment was heard on every hand yesterday regarding the plan of Washington music lovers to raise a $200,000 fund to donate to Oscar Hammerstein, the New York impresario, a site for an opera house. On this site Mr. Hammerstein has agreed to erect a $400,000 opera house, as stated in The Times yesterday.

From real estate men came the opinion that such a structure will raise real estate values, as it will add to the beauty of the city and will make the National Capital even more desirable than it is now as a residential city.

From others came the view that such an attraction will keep here people who would otherwise go to New York to hear grand opera. As Mr. Hammerstein plans to give fifteen nights of grand opera next season, there will be no reason for people leaving the city and going to New York.

Among musical people the enthusiasm over the proposition was unbounded. They welcome with delight the prospect of having here the "National Opera House," as the structure will be named.

DELIVERY HORSES BOLT, DRIVER SLIGHTLY HURT

Two horses attached to a delivery wagon of the Schlitz Brewing Company ran away yesterday afternoon while being driven down D street, and collided with a U street car. One of the horses was so badly hurt that it was necessary to kill it. Edward McCormick, the driver, was only slightly hurt.

CLARK GIVES BOND; STAYS IN PITTSBURG

Samuel J. Clark, who was arrested in Pittsburgh, for the District authorities for non-support, has furnished bond in the sum of $500, and will not be brought to Washington for some time. Detective McNamee, who went to Pittsburgh several days ago, will be obliged to return without the prisoner.
